

Imad S. Enchassi

Oklahoma City, OK

Phone: 405.816.4623 E-Mail: imadenchassi@cox.net

Objective

A proactive leader in the faith-based community, and a proven director in problem solving and personnel development. A seasoned public speaker with the ability to train, motivate, and build positive symbiotic relationships. A well-known public figure with years of commitment and experience in creating and maintaining organizations to implement strategies to enhance education and engagement.

Experience

Adjunct/ Assistant/ Professor of Islamic Studies

- Oklahoma City University/ Chair of Islamic Studies/ Muslim Chaplain 2011-Present
- Philips Theological Seminary / Adjunct Professor of Islamic Studies 2013- Present
- St. Paul School of Theology/ Adjunct Professor of Islamic Studies 2014- Present

Islamic Society of Greater Oklahoma City- President, Founder, and Imam 1992 – Present

- Oversee and supervise all activities. In charge of media and community outreach as well as fundraising. Organize workshops and develop curriculum throughout the year for Muslims and non-Muslims.

Mercy Education Foundation- Executive Director, Fundraiser, and Founder 2005 - 2010

- Provided consulting services for the Foundation and conducted lectures and outreach programs.

Independent Management- Advisor and Project Developer 2004 – 2005

- Conducted professional management seminars, and provided consultation services.
- Responsible for the training and recruiting of personnel to various companies.
- Supervised and evaluated employee performance, in cooperation with unit management.
- Responsible for recruiting and training managers.

Education

Daawa University Institute, Beirut, Lebanon 2009 - 2011

- Ph.D. in Islamic Studies; Dissertation on Constructive Effects of 9/11 on American Muslim Community
- Doctorate in Islamic Studies: Schools of Islamic Thought- 2010

University Institute of Vocation for Islamic Studies Beirut, Lebanon 2006 - 2010

- Apostolic Succession Certificate in Quranic Recitation, Memorization, and Interpretation- 2010
- Master in Islamic Studies: Islamic History and Islamic Thought (Thesis: Islamic Leadership Styles)- 2008
- Bachelors in Islamic Studies: Western Legal Opinions- 2006

University of Phoenix, Masters of Arts in Organizational Management 2001

Southern Nazarene University, Bachelor of Arts, Management of Human Resources 1991

South Plains College, Associates Degree in Arts, and Associates Degree in Sciences

1986

Extra

- Fluent in English and Arabic.
- Advisory Board of CAIR
- Advisory Board Wilber School of Religion (Oklahoma City University)
- Among his much recognition, Dr. Enchassi received the Interfaith Alliance Community Service Award, CAIR "Inspiration Award", and Dialogue Institute "Dialogue Award" and was named a Visionary in Religious & Education Outreach in the Daily Oklahoman's 2011 Progress Edition.